- 1Q25 sales: Intred delivered a resilient 1Q performance, with revenues flat at €13.9mn (+0.3% YoY), in line with our expectations. Results reflect two transitional factors: the gradual phase-out of one-off School Tender revenues, increasingly replaced by recurring fees, and the strategic repositioning of Connecting Italia, with non-core or low-margin services being phased out to enhance efficiency. Adjusted for these non-recurring items (including €0.85mn from Connecting in 1Q24), organic growth was solid at +8.1% YoY, driven by strong demand across recurring business lines. Growth was strongest in Brescia, Bergamo, Cremona, Lodi, and Como. The School Tenders programme continues to support regional expansion, particularly in the public and professional sectors. Intred's proprietary fibre network now reaches every Lombardy municipality with at least one school, growing from 13,500km at YE24 to over 14,000km as at end-March 2025.
- Improving mix and best-in-class KPIs: organic growth was primarily driven by UBB sales (€8.1mn) and Voice & Data services (€2.5mn). Recurring-revenue services — the company's core business — reached €13.0mn, up +10.2% YoY and accounting for 93.2% of total revenues. By customer segment, Wholesale delivered the strongest performance, growing +11.8% YoY to €1.1mn. The Private segment rose +5.7% YoY to €2.5mn, while the Professional segment remained solid at €7.7mn. PA revenues declined by 8.7% YoY to €2.6mn, reflecting the phase-out of one-off School Tender contributions; however, excluding these effects, PA revenues grew +35.4% YoY, underscoring rising demand for recurring and structural services. The churn rate stood at a low 4.3%, confirming strong customer retention and the resilience of Intred's business model.
- Short-term outlook: management looks ahead with confidence to the coming months, supported by the growing contribution from customers acquired through Connecting, which will help accelerate Intred's growth trajectory and market consolidation.
- No significant change in estimates: we are not making any significant changes to our estimates, other than incorporating the new buyback plan (maximum €1.5mn cash out), which we have spread across 2025 and 2026. We believe that, given the visible 8% organic revenue growth in 1Q and the ongoing phase-out of low-margin services, the company is well positioned to meet its full-year EBITDA targets, supported by strengthening margins.
- BUY confirmed; target still €16.5. FY25 expectations are closely tied to the brand repositioning effort launched in FY24, the phasing out of the top line contribution from School Tenders, and the company's ability to rapidly unlock cost synergies from Connecting Italia, bringing its margins in line with Group levels. In the meantime, we believe the company is well placed to seize differentiation opportunities in adjacent sectors. The DC opportunity stands out, as it requires no significant CapEx, is perfectly synergistic with existing operations, and offers high, long-term visibility on revenues, strong profitability once capacity saturation is reached, and an IRR in the low 20s. Further upside could come from M&A, as the company holds valuable assets, such as a proprietary network and a well-established, loyal customer base, positioning it advantageously in a market consolidation scenario. The stock is currently trading at c.6x EV/EBITDA'25 (Unidata c.4x, EU Telco Sector c.6x).

GUIDE TO FUNDAMENTAL RESEARCH

The main methods used to evaluate financial instruments and set a target price for 12 months after the investment recommendation are as follows:

- Discounted cash flow (DCF) model or similar methods such as a dividend discount model (DDM)
- Comparison with market peers, using the most appropriate methods for the individual company analysed: among the main ratios used for industrial sectors are price/ earnings (P/E), EV/EBITDA, EV/EBIT, price /sales.
- Return on capital and multiples of adjusted net book value are the main methods used for banking sector stocks, while for insurance sector stocks return on allocated capital and multiples on net book value and embedded portfolio value are used
- For the utilities sector comparisons are made between expected returns and the return on the regulatory asset base (RAB)

Some of the parameters used in evaluations, such as the risk-free rate and risk premium, are the same for all companies covered, and are updated to reflect market conditions. Currently a risk-free rate of 4.0% and a risk premium of 5.5% are being used.

Frequency of research: quarterly.

Reports on all companies listed on the S&P500 Index, most of those on the MIBEX Index and the main small caps (regular coverage) are published at least once per quarter to comment on results and important newsflow.

A draft copy of each report may be sent to the subject company for its information (without target price and/or recommendations), but unless expressly stated in the text of the report, no changes are made before it is published.
